Staff Induction Policy

Rationale:

- To incorporate new members of staff into Ursula Taylor School as smoothly as possible
- To make our expectations and protocols as clear as possible.

School Role:

- To introduce the new member of staff to the school prior to the start date of their contract by visiting and talking to the Headteacher, mentor and other teaching staff and meeting the pupils they will be responsible for
- To familiarise the new staff with:
 - Their role within the community and classroom
 - Their areas of responsibility
 - Staff
 - Daily routines and timetables for the hall, PE, playground and Collective Worship
 - Planning formats/systems
 - Policies, including those relating to safeguarding and child protection
 - Code of conduct
 - Resources
- To provide an appropriate mentor
- To provide in-service training, opportunities for observations, attendance at courses, links with Bedford Borough Local Authority at appropriate level
- To provide opportunities to regularly meet in an informal way with other members of staff to share ideas and concerns
- To provide non-contact time as appropriate

Role of the Headteacher:

- To ensure that the new member of staff is made aware of the school's Christian Ethos
- To ensure that a programme for induction is in place and that all relevant staff have received appropriate training and support to carry out any new roles require
- To monitor the process of Induction
- To ensure all staff are fully aware of their responsibilities towards Child Protection, Safeguarding and the Prevent Duty

Role of the Mentor:

- To support the new member of staff in transition to their new role and position within Ursula Taylor
- To attend any relevant training prior to undertaking role
- To provide a positive, friendly welcome
- To be the first point of contact
- To provide regular opportunities for discussion
- To coordinate support and guidance from all agencies

Role of the new member of staff:

- To build on strengths, skills, understanding and knowledge
- To keep records to support their professional development
- To attend relevant courses aimed at developing their professional development

In accordance with the Ursula Taylor School Equality Policy we seek to ensure that all staff are aware of pupils' needs to achieve their best, according to their capabilities and regardless of their disability, gender, race, culture, social, economic, ethnic, religious background and denominational diversity.

Ursula Taylor School recognises that the welfare of the child is paramount and takes seriously its responsibility to safeguard and promote the welfare of the children and young people in its care.
